Parents as Teachers-Heroes at Home

Parents are their children's first best teacher

About Us

Who: Families throughout pregnancy up until 3 years of age.

What: Parent education and family support.

How: Parents are supported by certified parent educators trained to translate scientific information on early brain development into specific when, what, how, and why advice for families.

Why: By understanding what to expect during each stage of development, parents can easily capture the teachable moments in everyday life to enhance their child's development.

Parents as Teachers Heroes at Home

Being a parent is hard work!

The early years of your child's life are the most important. The first years are a time of dramatic growth and development. As a military family, your unique experiences bring a whole new challenge and element to parenting. Our program is tailored to meet your needs.
